OS 12 TRABALHOS DE HÉRCULES, O PESQUISADOR

Hércules é um dos habitantes da cidade Universitária de Atenas. Ele é metade mortal e metade-aspirante à PHDeus. Vive rodeado por PH-Deuses e imerso em problemas, de pesquisa. Ele é orientado por Zeus, o Deus dos Deuses, mas quem o orienta mesmo é Quíron, seu coorientador, uma vez que Zeus vive em seus congressos no olimpo e (para sorte de Hércules) nunca aparece. Quíron é um centauro, mas para Hércules ele é um centauro. Junto com Jazão, Narciso, Aquiles e Orfeu, Hércules vive inúmeras aventuras em direção ao título de PHDeus. Há quem diga que só Hércules tem condições de chegar à PH-Deus, isso, é claro, se ele sobreviver aos seus 12 trabalhos como doutorando.

O CONGRESSO NO PURGATÓRIO

Hércules e seus amigos submetem seus trabalhos acadêmicos para comunicação no Congresso do Purgatório de organização de HADES, o PH-DEUS do submundo. Caronte, orientando de Hades, lhes dá as boas-vindas.
